

and 17 men arrested in the place for creating a disturbance.

Frederick Croh, 2409 Moffat st., died at St. Elizabeth's Hospital from burns received last week in gasoline explosion.

Albert Potenph, 247 Fry st., stepped into barrel of boiling water in plant of Chicago Distilled Water Co., 834 N. Hoyne av. Right leg scalded to hip.

Mrs. Sarah Bickerdike, 60, alleged to have kidnapped her granddaughter, Josephine Frye, 8, 1848 W. Van Buren st., Friday morning, has been arrested in Palestine, Tex., according to telegram.

"What the devil has happened to me? Have I eaten something poisoned? No, nothing of the sort. It is merely that I am in Chicago, the most fearful city on earth." What Arthur Holitscher, German writer, writes on Chicago in his new book, "America Today and Tomorrow."

Frank Bartzen, 2446 Lawrence av., son of Peter Bartzen, arrested for speeding.

Michael Kovick, 2324 W. 24th pl., molder, shot and fatally wounded by Stanley Kiscinski, 2420 W. 25th st. Quarrel.

Evanston voters will vote today on proposed bond issue of $180,000 for construction of a municipal filtration plant.

David Goldstein, 3, 1253 W. 13th st., overturned pot of boiling water. Seriously burned.

Two men overcome by gas while repairing main at Diversey and Milwaukee av. Taken home.

Agnes Majcan, 3, 2359 N. Seeley av., died from burns received when his clothes were accidentally set fire by her 4-year-old brother.

E. G. Atkinson, 153 Institute pl., attended service at Pacific Garden Mission. Someone stole his overcoat.

Mrs. R. E. Snik, 9326 Cottage Grove av., died from gas. Accidental.

John Pisha, 2300 S. Troy st., fell from Madison st. car at Walder st. Seriously injured.

Forty-three Chinese arrested when found playing Chinese gambling game in laundry at 66 W. Harrison st.

Nicholas Houteff, 5552 Lake av., missing.

Dora Rabinovitch, 821 Lowell ct., attempted to hang herself. Love quarrel. Revived.

J. W. Wescombe, 78, found dead, and wife, Elizabeth, 68, nearly unconscious from gas in room of home at 9011 Ontario av., South Chicago.

Frank Karr, 16, 1748 Nelson st., found helpless from drink at Ashland av. and Roscoe st. Alexion Brothers' Hospital.

Dr. P. J. H. Farrell, secretary of Chicago Medical Society, operated on. Appendicitis. Recovering.

Dr. Sun Yat Sen, ex-president of Chinese Republic, will be here about Jan. 1.

Bandit held up restaurant of Jacob Goldman. Escaped with $605. Represented himself as "the captain" of police.

Five young men in two autos arrested in parts of city where